On January 30th, 2012 at approximately 9:30 pm a female was exiting a business in the 4100 Block of Buckeye Parkway in Grove City. The male threatened the female with a knife if she did not hand over her wallet. The female began to walk away from the male and back towards the store. The male lunged at the female and fought her for the purse. The male suspect was able to gain control of the purse and he fled back to his vehicle in the parking lot.

The suspect is a white male, 5' 8", 150 lbs., clean shaven, polite and well spoken wearing blue jeans, dark colored hooded sweatshirt.

The vehicle the suspect was driving was a two door, silver or gray in color with damage to the front passenger side window area. The suspect's vehicle left onto Buckeye Parkway and then westbound on Stringtown Road.
